FACULTY ACADEMIC REGALIA

The ceremonial gowns worn in the academic procession speak, by their shape and color, or the historic dignity of the intellectual pursuits. Their design derives from that of the gown of the clerics who were teachers and students at the first universities, founded in the Middle Ages. Thus, the gown is the descendant of the monk's robe and the hood a vestige of the cowl.

The Doctor's gown is ankle-length, with wide lapels of velvet and with full, bell-shaped sleeves marked by three bars of chevrons of velvet. The Master's gown, by contrast, lacks the lapels and chevrons and has pointed sleeves, slit to the elbow.

The gown also tells the academic history of the scholar who wears it. The lining of the hood (and occasionally, the gown itself) displays the colors of the university which granted the degree; whereas the border of the hood and the chevrons announce the scholar's field of study: maize, for example stands for agriculture, light blue for education, purple for law, lemon for library science, and sage green for physical education.

The following is a color code for the trimmings on academic hoods.

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Humanities	White
Business	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Home Economics	Maroon
Journalism	crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
